12th Annual “Cool Truck Show”

May 4th-5th, 2012

Galt Market Grounds, Galt Ca

(Rain or shine) to benefit

Shriners Hospitals for Children

Show begins Friday morning and starting at dark thirty a very awesome light show. Set up will be Friday morning starting at 7am till 10pm. Bring your trucks and trailers, no loaded equipment without Bobs ok. There will be a live auction on Saturday for some pretty cool truck parts which comes from some of our manufacturers. Get ready to see some of the coolest trucks from all across the US!

There will be some live music and vendor booths. ATM is available at the truck show. There will be food available at the show.

T-shirts will be limited this year due to costs so PLEASE Pre-register prior to event to insure we have your size available.

Judging will be done by people's choice only. Voting ballots will be available at the show.

Remember, this event is to benefit the children so bring your truck regardless of condition. Wash what you got! Run whatcha brung and have fun! Bring your lawn chairs, your umbrella, and your hot rods or come anyway and bring a photo (lol) but come!

Last year we had a pretty good turnout considering our economy. We love old faces but we also like to see some new faces. We are hoping to make this the best benefit on the west coast. Tricked out Truck or right off the dealer's lot, we don't care, we love them all!

Representatives of the Big Rigs of the Shrine will be at the show to provide information about this new club and to assist in membership. The annual meeting will be held to coincide with the truck show. Go to www.cherokeetruckparts.com/bigrigsoftheshrine/html for more info.
